

Become a Friend of The Trinity

We're calling on all members of the audience to become a friend of the Trinity. Don't worry, it won't cost you anything and you'll be the first to find out about all the activities we have planned including :-

An Acting School
Trips to other Theatres
Social Evenings & Pub Quizzes

Furthermore, there will be opportunities to get involved in a variety of activities to help the Theatre building as well as the Theatre Group such as Publicity, Stage-Craft, Art and Design, Prompting, etc, etc

Don't forget! You don't have to be a thespian to join our group. Anyone and everyone is welcome, we meet every Wednesday and we're a very friendly group.

See www.trinityplayersbarnsley.com, join our FaceBook page or leave your details with one of our assistants and we'll do the rest.

Cast

(in costume of appearance)

Jane Laverack: Ida

Jane joins us once again and we're very pleased to see her. This time in a farce and just about losing the Scouse accent.

Joe Battye: Miss Skillon

Joe's first venture onto the Trinity stage although she has been involved with us before, as choreographer in last season's Panto. Break a leg, Joe.

Michael Cutts: Lionel

Michael is a Trinity regular. Although Penistone Theatre Society keep trying to steal him back, he keeps returning. This time on stage with his girlfriend, Sophie.

Cast cont....

Sophie Goddard: Penelope

This is not Sophie's first stage venture, but it is, she says, her most challenging. You'll be great, Sophie. Please give her your support.

Andrew Crossland: Clive

We love to see Andrew back on stage. A versatile actor who immerses himself in every role and this performance is no different. From Dame, to Author, to Vicar. Enjoy.

Peter Horner: Stranger

A stalwart of the Trinity Troupe. If not starring on plays, he's supporting every production. He just can't stay away.

Cast cont....

Bob Willerton: The Bishop

If you don't know Bob from the Trinity stage, you will from the Lamproom, the Paramount and several others. A great actor and iconic Trinity member

Hugh Jones: Mr Humphrey

A newbie to the Trinity stage although Hugh tells us he did this play many years past. Welcome to the Trinity, Hugh. We hope you'll be back.

John Parker: Sergeant

John is the Director of this play as well as appearing on stage. He never rests! What would we do without John?
