Trinity Players present

Comfort and Joy

A Seasonal Comedy by Mike Harding

It's Christmas.

Relatives you hardly ever see at your house for the festivities.

No-one receives a present that is at all appropriate.

Culinary disasters abound.

Long-buried resentments rear their ugly heads as the alcohol flows and tongues are loosened.

Director's Notes

So did you ever hear the tale of the Johnstone twins.. No? Well sit back and relax and we will bring it to life for you. Set in Liverpool between 1950 and 1979 we follow their lives.

This is a play which is often studied by A level students not only from a drama perspective but also from a class angle and the advantages of privilege. But tonight it's here to entertain you and if you're of the generation that were children in the 1950s probably will spark some memories.

Being a Yorkshire lass I was dead chuffed to be asked to direct Trinity's summer production and delighted when Blood Brothers was chosen. However my joy was short lived when just as we were about to start I received the news that I needed to start chemo. I thought that's it, no directing for me, but I hadn't factored in the wonderful people that are the members of Trinity Players. I can't thank them enough for making it possible for me to stay involved. Everybody did all they could to make my job as easy as possible especially Paul Taylor who has been my rock throughout this production. Trinity Players are without doubt team players as you will witness tonight when you see our play.

I hope you enjoy every second of it, we certainly have. It's been a joy and an honour to be involved and I think we will all be a little sad come Saturday.

Thankyou for your support. Now its time to "Bring on the mother let the story begin"

Helen Watson

We Are Trinity Players Barnsley!

We are always happy to meet new members so if you have a longing to tread the boards or get involved in any way, come along. We meet every Wednesday evening at this hall BUT!... Don't complain if you come along to do a bit of painting and end up on stage in a chicken costume. You have been warned!
