

THE CURE FOR LOVE
by Walter Greenwood
(by permission of Samuel French Ltd.)

Milly Southern.....Barbara Unwin
Mrs. Jenkins.....Barbara Spence
Janey Jenkins.....Marlene Sykes
Sarah Hardacre.....Sandra Thornley
Charlie Fox.....Arthur Bowker
Ted Munter.....Edmund Bell
Jack Hardacre.....Alan Leech
Harry Lancaster.....Garry Fletcher
Barmaid.....Sally Goodier
Mrs. Dorbell.....Sandra Carter
Joe Trueman.....Eric Bray

Producer.....Arthur Bowker

The action of the play takes place in a Northern town towards the last stages of the Second World War.

ACT I

Mrs. Hardacre's kitchen-living-room.

ACT II

Scene 1: The Private Bar of the Flying Shuttle.
Scene 2: Mrs. Hardacre's kitchen-living-room.

ACT III

The Private Bar of the Flying Shuttle.

IN AID OF BARNSLEY CANCER RELIEF FUND

Secretary.....Margaret Midgley
Hall Manager.....Frank Jenkinson
Stage Manager.....Bill Moss
Decor.....Michael Spence
Props.....Maureen Benson
Electrician.....Edmund Bell
Ticket Secretary.....Susan Fletcher

Acknowledgements - T.S.B., Barnsley.
The Cranberry, Dodworth Rd., Barnsley.
The Wheatsheaf, Town End, Barnsley.

Trinity Players would like to thank everyone who has helped in any way with this production.

* * * * *

19th March - NEW MEMBERS' NIGHT

If you are interested in joining Trinity Players, in any capacity, please come and meet us at 7.30 p.m. All ages welcome, 15th May - THE LOVE MATCH - 7.15 p.m.

a comedy by Glynn Melvyn

Admission - 80p. For World Missions and towards a motorised wheelchair for a Barnsley boy.
Seats can be booked at the door as you leave.

Trinity United Reformed Church present

FROM PHARAOH TO FREEDOM
a Musical by Roger Jones
in the Church

11th May at 10.30 a.m. • WORLD MISSIONS
22nd May at 7.30 p.m.