Director's Notes

The Farndale Ave Townswomen's Guild presents Macbeth a play that showcases the inept performances of a group of well meaning ladies and goes wrong despite their best efforts.

Well, we couldn't have chosen a more appropriate play to do in 2020 - it got hit by a national lockdown, Covid cases, broken boilers, cast changes oh and the list goes on and on. But despite everything being against us you are here tonight and we hope you have an evening full of laughter as our Farndale ladies bumble their way through the bards masterpiece. You may recognise some of his script - but not a lot.

A huge thanks to my cast and crew for all their hard work and Trinity members for their support. Enjoy your evening, it's been a long time coming!!!

The Farndale Avenue Housing Estate Townswomen's Guild Dramatic Society's Production of MacBeth

~ Farndale's Chairlady's Note ~

In this our 50th anniversary year we are pleased to once more be appearing in the Townswomen's Guild annual drama festival.

This year our very talented actresses chose to showcase their Shakespearean skills and will present Macbeth. I am sure you will be very impressed with their command of the language and portrayal of the characters.

Our membership has grown this year and I was very pleased to welcome the Witcher twins Dawn and Felicity back to the group. They have been acting together for over 50 yrs... what an achievement. I am also delighted to be joined on stage by my granddaughter Monica, a chairlady of the future I am sure. Well break a leg ladies ..

Date for your diaries 07/09/2022 3-30pm afternoon tea with Mrs Danby Reading extracts from Mary Berry's best seller book "How to avoid a soggy bottom"
